GIRL TYPIST TESTIFIES AGAINST T. H. PICKFORD

Miss Barbara Graf, of San Antonio, Tells Jury of Cashing $1,200 Check for Former Employer.

HER STORY REMAINS UNSHAKEN

Confidence which usually obtains between employer and stenographer was rung to the winds in Criminal Court No. 1 yesterday, when Miss Barbara Graf unfolded before Justice Stafford and a jury the story of certain services she performed for Thomas H. Pickford as his stenographer.

Pickford and William S. Dugan were on trial charged with having attempted to bribe Ferdinand Hopp, a witness in

THE SHERMAN-WALKER SUIT FOR ALLEGED UNLAWFUL PROSECUTION

Miss Graf was brought into the case by the prosecution, for she was the stenographer who typed the affidavit against her former employer.

With apparent reluctance Miss Graf testified that she had typed the affidavit on which the government's attorneys largely rely for conviction. She held she had made the typewritten copy at the request of Pickford and in the presence of Walker, the missing co-defendant. The affidavit was to have been signed by Hopp, it is alleged, and the check, for a total sum of $1,200, was drawn and cashed by the stenographer, who said, the same day she copied the affidavit. The copy and cash were handed, she said, to her employer in the presence of Walker. Dugan was not about at the time, but she said Walker was a frequent visitor.

Attorney H. Prescott Gatlief, counsel for Pickford, cross-examined the witness sharply, but did not materially shake her story.

NURSES GET DIPLOMAS FROM TRAINING SCHOOL

Class of Nineteen Completes Course at the Government Hospital for the Insane.

The Training School for Nurses at the Government Hospital for the Insane has completed its course for the season of 1913 and 1914, and has awarded diplomas to a class of nineteen. Dr. William A. White, superintendent of the institution, presented the diplomas at the exercises which were held in Hitchcock Hall, while Dr. William C. Woodward, District health officer, delivered the principal address.

Those receiving diplomas were Misses Blundon, of Virginia; Sarah Cumberland, Virginia; Irene Chappelaer, Virginia; Laura Deloth, Maryland; Bessie Herrell, Virginia; Catherine Hogan, Ireland; Catherine Kirby, Virginia; Blanch Lomich, Virginia; Ethel H. Symes, Maryland; Ruth L. Symes, Maryland; Mary Ollman, Virginia, and Ernest White, Maryland; Thomas B. Kinsey, Virginia; Albert J. Ellis, Maryland; Clarence E. Goldsmith, Maryland; John Lockhart, Virginia; James Shumack, Virginia; Fred Smith, Virginia, and J. M. Smith, Virginia.

Citizens of the eastern section of the District, as well as those residing in Maryland, near-by, are to make another effort to have Congress appropriate sufficient money to widen and improve Pennsylvania avenue without between the bridge and the District line.

Members of the Anacostia Baptist Church and citizens of Anacostia met last evening in the church at Thirtieth and W streets to welcome Rev. Dr. Henry T. Cousins, late of Waplesburg, Canada, who has accepted the call to become permanent pastor of the church. Dr. Cousins expressed his delight at being assigned to the parish and predicted a successful future.

WOMAN'S SENTENCE LIFTED.

Because of her "critical physical condition," President Wilson yesterday commuted to expire at once the sentence of Mrs. Addie Jewel, convicted in Hartford, Conn., of using the mails to defraud. Mrs. Jewel is serving a six-month sentence in the New Haven County Jail. She was convicted of advertising that she would give her services for a comfortable home and then of keeping money when it was sent her to pay transportation to the places where she obtained employment.

EVERY BURROJAPS model is styled for comfort and for service. While the outer lines follow fashion's trend, the manufacturers have ever in mind the fact that there must be room for all five toes inside.

In the "good olde days" BURROJAPS Shoes were made in the "good olde way."

Today, BURROJAPS are made by the most modern machinery man has invented. But the same "olde time" conscientiousness that put BURROJAPS in the front rank way back in 1859 keeps this famous footwear in identically that same relative position in the year 1914.
